

Hello and welcome to my assignment.

Basic setup instructions:

- >Download the folder locally.
- >Click on index.html
- >It will take you to the browser with the main page of the website.

Features and Navigation:

- >Here, you will see a main bar with current date and login/subscribe links that will navigate you to different pages
- >All pages of the website are responsive and are suited for most screen sizes.
- >Login/SignUp Page have necessary validations.
- >Subscribe page has 3 plans of subscription.
- >A comment section at the end of the website.
- >A Live Twitter Feed on NITK Surathkal
- >I have not made use of any database/backend so the login/comments don't have much functionality.

Important things to note:

- >Make sure your internet is working properly, since the images are not locally available in the folder.
- >Also,in the login page, the correct username is “user” and the correct password is “root”.

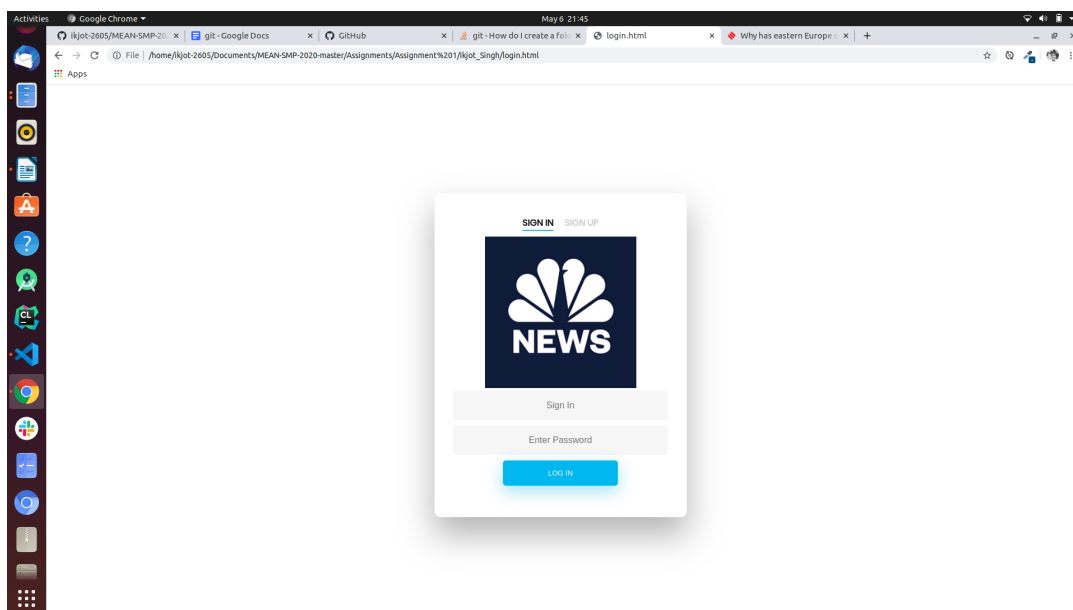

Thanks and Regards.
